DETAILED ACTION

Response to Arguments

1. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-4 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

2. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

3. The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.

4. Claims 1-4 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as anticipated by or, in the alternative, under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as obvious over HONEBEIN (EP 0 343 505) as disclosed by the applicant.

Regarding claim 1, HONEBEIN discloses a device for isolating cigarettes from a quantity of cigarettes located in a shaft (18,26), comprising:

- a pivotal flap (14) at the outlet of the shaft for releasing one cigarette (20) that is to be isolated; and
- a retaining element (22) for holding back the remaining cigarettes in the shaft which is disposed above the flap in the direction of movement of the cigarettes whereby the retaining element is a resilient thrust piece,
- wherein the flap and the retaining element are parts of a pivotal element (see Figures 2-4),
- wherein during a rotary movement of the pivotal element, the flap releases one cigarette, and the retaining element enters an outlet track of the shaft for the purposes of holding back further cigarettes (see Figure 3), and
- wherein following reverse rotation of the pivotal element, the flap is located transversely in the shaft and holds back the cigarettes, whilst the retaining element is located outside the shaft (see Figure 4).

Regarding claim 2, HONEBEIN discloses the device of claim 1, wherein the resilient thrust piece clamps a succeeding cigarette in the outlet track (see Figure 2).

Regarding claim 3, HONEBEIN discloses the device of claim 1, further comprising a container is in the form of a cassette in which the cigarettes are arranged one above the other in the shaft (see Figure 1).

Regarding claim 4, HONEBEIN discloses the device of claim 1, wherein the cigarettes that are to be isolated are test specimens for subsequent measuring processes.

Conclusion

5. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.

6. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
